SUBJECT: TEXT OF JULY 26 CHAD-SUDAN AGREEMENT

¶1. On August 11, Post received a hardcopy of the July 26 agreement signed by the Government of Chad and the Government of Sudan. Below is a translation of the relevant points of the agreement:

¶2. (BEGIN TRANSLATION)

The two parties agree to interdict the use of their respective territories for hostile activities against the sovereignty and the territorial integrity of the other;

The two parties agree to interdict the presence and hosting of rebel elements in their respective territories.

The two parties agree to create a political commission to follow-up on the present agreement, overseen by the Foreign Affairs Ministries of the two countries;

The commission will meet in Khartoum and in N'Djamena, alternately, once every three months, or as the conditions merit;

The parties agree to the creation of a military/security commission, charged with overseeing the border between the two countries;

The creation of a mixed military force that will be deployed in the following zones: Bahai, Tine, Koulbous, Khor Baranga, Amdjireme, Adre, Ade, Modohina, El Djinena, Tissi, Amdoukoun;

The two parties agree that restoring diplomatic relations between the two countries should be left to the discretion of the two Heads of State;

The two parties will work so that the mechanisms relative to articles 3,4,5,6,7, and 8 take effect within a time-frame not to exceed one month from the date of the signature of the present minutes.

Completed in N'Djamena, July 26, 2006, in French and Arabic, the two texts in accord.
